Please note there will be construction on campus that may affect some parking lots and roadways.

Things to do

The Gryphon An iconic campus symbol, the statue was installed in 2014 to commemorate the University's 50th anniversary. Students are known to rub the Gryphon's beak for good luck!

The Cannon "Old Jeremiah" resides in Branion Plaza and acts as a colourful message board for students.

The University Bookstore

Commemorate your weekend with something from the Bookstore. Find a souvenir, replace your old sweatshirt, or buy something for the grandkids.

Tour de Guelph Watch participants cycle in support of Guelph General Hospital. Cyclists leave and return to the Guelph Gryphons Athletics Centre on Sunday.

Where to Eat

Need a bite to eat? Our campus food partners look forward to seeing you in June*

**A detailed schedule of food locations and times will be provided to alumni guests on Alumni Weekend.*
